

Lorne Merryweather

From: Grant Sprague
Sent: Tuesday, December 21, 2010 10:58 AM
To: Barb Mason
Cc: Lorne Merryweather
Subject: Fw: "DRAFT" letter to unsuccessful party

Hi Barb can you confirm with Jeff and modify as needed

- get the letters to the losers confirmed and ready to go - you can sign from me
- speak to Lorne about calling the winners and timing with the letters
- speak to lorne about letting martin know we are going live - saw MjC this am and he understands the leaning
-

Grant

Grant D. Sprague, QC
Assistant Deputy Minister
Legal Services Division
Alberta Justice

From: Grant Sprague
Sent: Tuesday, December 21, 2010 10:53 AM
To: Jeff Henwood; Karen Christensen; Ray Bodnarek
Subject: Re: "DRAFT" letter to unsuccessful party

Very good - will have a plan crafted and confirmed before we execute

Grant D. Sprague, QC
Assistant Deputy Minister
Legal Services Division
Alberta Justice

From: Jeff Henwood
Sent: Tuesday, December 21, 2010 10:21 AM
To: Grant Sprague; Karen Christensen; Ray Bodnarek
Subject: RE: "DRAFT" letter to unsuccessful party

I think it's safe to notify the "successful" firm that you will be approaching them to negotiate a contingency agreement with them

From: Grant Sprague
Sent: Tuesday, December 21, 2010 10:17 AM
To: Jeff Henwood; Karen Christensen; Ray Bodnarek
Subject: Re: "DRAFT" letter to unsuccessful party

We will likely call the "winner" but won't do until we get instructions from you - we are being careful as well as we need to ultimately negotiate a proper contingency agreement with them.